James Madison
The Federalist No. 47

The accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, and judiciary, in the same hands, whether of one, a few, or many, and whether hereditary, selfappointed, or elective, may justly be pronounced the very definition of tyranny.

As was the desire of our Founding Fathers for Independence in 1776, so it is the desire and the obligation of We The People some 220 years later to Declare Independence from the privileged class that has taken control of all three branches of government and rendered our Republic an Oligarchy in direct violation of The Declaration of Independence and The United States Constitution.
