

The GLOOG Revolution

It's The Lawyers Stupid!

America's 2nd Declaration of Independence

~ Preamble ~

With all the elections and all the noble efforts for the last 40 years, our country is worse off than ever and there is a very simple reason for this;

We have never identified the real problem.

Forget Ideologies and Parties.

*The 2nd Declaration names the real despot - lists the grievances and declares the freedoms
from the Oligarchy that now rules our country.*

*Of course some will say that we are dreaming with this new Declaration and it can never happen. Well then that makes it even that much more like
The Original...*

- About This Book! -

1. This book is the most complete expose ever compiled on the real cancer that is consuming America.
2. This book is not for the 'PC' individual.
3. The purpose is not to malign, disparage, discredit, vilify, derogate, revile or denigrate all lawyers; only most of them. (God Bless the others - 'The Good Guys' - Chapter 6)
4. Although always preferable, this book does not need to be read from front to back or in any order. The point is obvious in most articles supported by common sense, facts, reality, and the resources included in the appendix. Subject matter is listed by chapter and can be resourced accordingly.
5. Most opinions expressed herein are not solely from the author but are shared by the majority of Americans. (Just ask anyone on the street who does not go to law school.)

(Keep the Pulitzer, just give me back my country...)

Donald Trump??

WOW. What are they thinking?

Can you imagine what would happen to America, the biggest business in the world, if actually a successful businessman were in charge...

How's that working out...

Dedication -

This Blook and the GLOOG websites are dedicated to serving the 'John Does' of America whose efforts and votes are not doing any good and see that things are just getting worse. It will hopefully awaken them to the reality of their power in the voting booth. Also this book is dedicated to 'The Father of The Constitution' and the man who foresaw the necessity of this book over 200 years ago.

And finally this book is dedicated to the 55+ MILLION fellow human beings who although given the miracle of life by God, were denied it by seven lawyers;

On January 22, 1973 all laws in the United States were officially nullified by 7 lawyers on the "Supreme" Court. On that day it became legal to kill an unborn baby right inside the mothers womb, no reason necessary.

Any sane human being realized at that moment that if killing the most innocent of all was legal, than indeed nothing else could be illegal. If the most sacred and most precious cornerstone of civilization did not require the protection of law, than the very foundation of the proscribed purpose of human law was null and void along with all existing laws that it supported. - See Page 72

Authors Note

With 85% of all offices in American government held by lawyers, can there be any doubt? Yes all three branches; Congress, Judicial and Executive; State and Federal. Now take that overwhelming dominance and then calculate in the fact that ALL administrators, from the simple office manager to the Military Chief of Staff, has to run everything by and get approval from a lawyer before he can implement any policies, programs or laws. What you have is nothing new. What you have is something that James Madison, The Father of The Constitution, warned against over 200 years ago: Tyranny.

The concept of three distinct branches of government holding each other in check was the cornerstone of the Constitution. Of course the Founders never imagined that the electorate would allow one group, or as Madison described it "same hands" to seize all 3 branches. As stated in the 'Supreme Court' Chapter 2:

Two things which they could not foresee happened;

1. All three branches would eventually be controlled by one profession
2. The members of the 'supreme ' court would take that name literally.

In the following pages you will see how the Founders tried to avoid this early on with the passage of the Original 13th Amendment and their objection to Marshall usurping power in Marbury v Madison.

This book does not need to be read from front to back or in any order. The point is obvious in most articles and supported by common sense, facts, reality and the resources included in the appendix. Most of these resources come from patriots who have spent their time and money to warn and to awaken the American voter. Among them are the Founding Fathers Adams and Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Newt Gingrich and lesser known soldiers of the 2nd Revolution Robert Bertrand, Ron Bibace, Sammy Sorrel, Dennis Schuelke and last but not least, John Stossel who is the lone media star who has actually televised more than one show about this: America's most obvious and threatening problem.

I can't mention everyone and I'm sure there are others who have recognized this '800 Pound Elephant in the Room' and if you're out there please let me know.

I have tried to make the articles here brief and to the point. Unlike many of the 'talking heads' we see daily, I'm not interested in sounding intellectual or like I graduated summa cum laude from an Ivy league school. The information herein is written in plain simple everyday English as taught by my parents with a few choice words learned on the street. It's not important what anyone thinks about me, only that the reader understands the severity of the issue and how we can take our country back from the lawyer class. It can be much easier than you think – this book illustrates that.

You can disagree and call me anything you like but you can't argue with the realities and the facts presented in this book. Well of course most lawyers will but that's to be expected from those who value their own success over truth, justice, morality and even their own country.

Just one simple fact tells it all:

The biggest, strongest and most successful business in the history of the world is indeed America.

But instead of making a profit, it is now over

18 TRILLIOIN DOLLARS in DEBT!!

Think maybe this business needs new management....

Americans are indeed God's chosen people and despite what the 'Judas Profession' and the anti-Americans, aka progressives, want you to believe, this is God's country. I hope you will join the effort to rid our country of this failed lawyer 'leadership' and their Godless culture that is destroying our very foundation.

Good Luck & Good Health
